Providing investors with reliable, comprehensive information about the Company is a critical step in attracting equity investment capital. This information may be especially important in attracting non-institutional equity investors who do not have access to the range of analysts' reports, and attracting such investment has both near-term and longer-term direct benefits to the Company. The near-term benefits result from rising equity prices, which immediately translate to lower cost common equity, and ultimately ratemaking benefits through lower rates. For example, increased investment and higher equity prices lowers the yield calculation, as shown in the common Discounted Cash Flow formulation of the cost of capital. In a similar vein, the longer-term benefits derive from providing lower cost equity to maintain and expand the utility system.

102	002	1905 SS Outside Director Retirement	Cost Accrued retirement costs for the non-employee members of the Board of Directors. Cost associated with the annual grant of share units to non-employee directors for their service on the Board of Directors. Like all publicly held corporations, Atmos has a board of directors, and the activities of the board benefit the Company and its customers as a whole. These directors require compensation. Part of the compensation package includes annual grants of shares of the Company's stock. The expense recorded in this cost center is not invoiced from a third-party. Rather, it is calculated in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 123(R), Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. Essentially, this standard requires shared-based compensation to be recognized over the requisite service period. The amount of the compensation cost recorded in this cost center is based upon the number of shares granted and the grant date fair value of the stock award.
103	002	1908 SS Dallas SEBP	Atmos Energy Corporation has implemented and maintained over the past years a supplemental executive retirement plan as an integral part of its executive compensation program. There are currently three SERP plans in which active corporate officers participate. The SEBP is currently closed to new membership; only employees promoted to or directly appointed to a Management Committee level job are eligible to join the SERP. An account based SERP is now in place to which newly appointed corporate officers are eligible. The SERP has been instrumental in helping the Company to attract, motivate, and retain a high quality senior management team responsible for the leadership of the Atmos organization.
			To capture the cost associated with these plans, Cost Center 1908 has been established. Annuity benefits from the SEBP and SERP are funded through Rabbi Trusts maintained at State Street Trust and lump sum benefits from the SEBP, SERP and Account Based SERP are paid from Corporate assets. Atmos Energy's Company-Owned Life Insurance (COLI) which is a funding vehicle for benefits paid to former officers who receive an annuity benefit paid out of Corporate assets. The COLI reimburses Atmos for these annuity benefits. The SFAS 87 expense related to these annuity benefits is charged to the respective division where the former Corporate officer retired. The SFAS 87 expense for current retired SEBP and SERP participants, the management committee and current active Corporate officers is also accounted for in Cost Center 1908. The SFAS 87 expense for the SEBP and SERP is actuarially determined by an independent third-party actuary in accordance with SFAS 87.
			The COLI policies were executed on certain executives (now retired) in prior years and are being phased out. Currently, no new policies are being executed. Finally, this Cost Center is used to record the independent actuary's cost to perform the annual SFAS 87 and SFAS 106 calculations required for Atmos Energy's SEC filings. This includes third-party costs associated with the administration of the SEBP (Haynes Boone, State Street, Towers Watson, LCG Associates). These costs are part of the overall executive compensation plan and are not incentive compensation.

124	3. The four-factor allocation factors were set to 0% for cost centers 1132, 1350, 1507, 1904, and 1908 to remove these costs from this filing and to align with the findings in the Final Order
125	in Mid-Tex Division GUD 9869.
126	4. The Capitalization Rate was revised to 56.81% for cost centers 1401, 1402, and 1405 because they support the overall work of the Company. The capitalization rate
127	follows the overall Company capitalization rate.
128	5. Cost Centers 1142, 1167 and 1168 are no longer active and were replaced by new cost centers 1144 (replaced 1142) and 1134 (replaced 1167 and 1168). The expenses shown
