Dear Commissioners:

As a Texan who has been employed in the oil and gas industry in the Houston area for more than 15 years, I do not believe it is wise or appropriate for the Railroad Commission to engage in a pro-rationing or curtailment of production statewide or in any region. Texas should remain a free market state and promote healthy competition, which encourages producers to cut costs and maximize revenue for both them and Texas. Pro-rationing penalizes efficient producers, who have been innovative in lowering capital and operating expenses and distorts free markets. It also would give Saudi Arabia, Russia and other OPEC nations leverage over Texas in perpetuity. I appreciate consideration of my views and do not wish to testify at the scheduled meeting.
